

Luxe Design. The look: Paris by way of SoHo. Eve Mauldin and Dale Collins opened this loft-like space that on one side houses R&Y Augosti handbags and shawls, Christian Tortu candles, Murano glass and Jan Barboglio designed iron chairs, and on the other side, a highly stylized salon run by Collins. In the back is a small European style spa whose aesthetician uses French made products from Guinot. Mauldin is a Neiman Marcus alum who honed her buying skills at Translations before joining Collins, who already had a loyal clientele in Plano. Mid-century touches such as a 1960s era George Nelson reception desk, an oversized fiberglass screen salvaged from an old movie theater in Dallas(which Collins and mauldin scrubbed down for days to get rid of the popcorn smell) and vintage chrome barber chairs give Luxe Design some spunk to go with the sophistication. Luxe Design, 4017 Preston Road, Suite 525, Plano, 972.781.1720
